

SOCIETY

I like the tangled brakes and briars;
The hazy smoke of forest fires;
The misty hills, soft robe of brown;
The ravished field's regretful frown;
The wrinkled road's unconscious snare,
The free, unbreathed and fragrant air.
I like the wide, unworried sky,
The resting wind's contented sigh;
The rustle of the vagrant leaves,
The whisper in the standing sheaves;
The birds' lament for summer lost,
The stinging challenge of the frost.
The sturdy life of stalwart trees
Thrills in my veins on days like these!

Society in Richmond during the past week concerned itself mainly with its marrying and giving in marriage, the important nuptial events beginning at 1 o'clock on Tuesday last, when Miss Leila Augusta Myers and Mr. John Hill Morgan, a prominent New York banker, were wedded in historic St. Paul's, Mrs. Joseph R. Anderson later giving the bridal pair an elegant wedding breakfast and reception in her home on West Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left for the North immediately afterwards. Mrs. Morgan is the daughter of Mrs. Mattie Paul Myers, who as Miss Mattie Paul was a noted Virginia belle and beauty, and who is still an exceedingly handsome woman, with an irresistible graciousness and charm of manner.

Wednesday at noon witnessed the wedding of Miss Lora Crutcher and Mr. Robert Mosby Pulliam in Holy Trinity Church. The church ceremonial of Wednesday was preceded by an entertainment to the bride party on Tuesday evening at No. 217 South Third Street, where the parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated and the bride-elect looked exceedingly handsome in an imported Paris robe of black net with applique of embroidery and sequin collar and giraffe. Other wedding of the same day included that of Miss Adelaide R. Howard to Mr. Hugh Buchanan Houston, taking place at 8 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Bruce, No. 10 North Laurel Street; that of Miss Lulu Lutzpeter, Christian to Mr. Henry Leon de Milhan, of Brooklyn, New York, celebrated at 6:30 P. M. in St. Peter's Cathedral, and witnessed by a large party of relatives and friends from Richmond and Brooklyn; that of Miss Monica Putney and Mr. John Frischkorn, Jr., also at 8:30, in the Church of the Covenant, the Rev. Dr. J. Calvin Stewart performing the ceremony.

Two of the most admired young ladies in Richmond society, Miss Josephine Putney and Miss Katherine Michaux, were brides of Thursday.

Miss Michaux was a home wedding. The ceremony was witnessed by the relatives and connections of the contracting parties and a brilliant reception followed. The groom, Mr. Edward R. Baird, Jr., of Norfolk, is a grandson of Commodore Barron of the Confederate navy.

Miss Putney was married to the Rev. William F. Dunn, rector of St. Bartholomew's, Baltimore, in Holy Trinity Church, the ceremony in her case succeeding Miss Michaux's by an hour or two. Prominent among the guests at this wedding was Colonel Robert E. Withers, of Yorkville, Va., the bride's grandfather, a distinguished veteran of the Civil War, a former United States Senator and consul to China and some years ago one of the most prominent leaders in Virginia, being practically the founder of the Lynchburg News.

Weddings in Prospect.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor L. Tree, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. B. Tree, of this city, to Mr. Hillard Russell, of St. Louis, will be celebrated on Wednesday evening, November 18th, at 8 o'clock, in the home of Miss Tree's sister, Mrs. Adam Gray, of No. 303 North Crescent Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Tree will be attended by her two nieces as bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor and Miss Frances Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Miller have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ashley Macon Miller, to Dr. Jesse Newman Ray, an eye and ear specialist of Washington, D. C.

The ceremony will be performed quietly Tuesday, November 17th, at noon, in the home of the bride's parents, No. 39 East Grace Street.

Cards have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lumsden for the wedding of their daughter, Marie, to Mr. Clifford Alvin Lytle, the ceremony to be performed

MISS MARY COALTER KOINER.

Miss Koiner, who is the daughter of Mr. George W. Koiner, Commissioner of Agriculture, has recently returned from a visit of several months to her sister, Mrs. Tom West, of Cos. Sonora, Mexico. Miss Koiner had a thrilling experience in coming home, as she was in the railroad wreck near Kansas City, when Mrs. Booth-Tucker met her death.

The two coaches in front of that occupied by Miss Koiner were crushed, but she was not injured. Her impressions of Mexico are very vivid and delightful. She is at the copper mines in the midst of the mountains, with a climate, considered by Miss Koiner, as approaching perfection. She says that horse-back riding and hunting are the principal amusements, game being so plentiful as to be had for the going after it. The principal impression made upon Miss Koiner by the equestrianism around Cos, was that they all rode man-fashion and greatly preferred so doing.

November 18th at 9:30 o'clock in the evening in No. 515 North First Street.

The Rev. W. Weston Bruner, of Cavalry Baptist Church, will officiate.

Among the out-of-town weddings in which Richmond people will be interested is that of Miss Emma Thompson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Smith, to Mr. Robert F. Jahnke, which will be celebrated November 18th, at 1:30 P. M. in the Presbyterian Church at Gonzales, Tex. Mr. Robert Jahnke is a brother of Mr. A. F. Jahnke, of this city.

Miss Gertrude Elam, the daughter of Mrs. and the late Colonel W. C. Elam, a former talented editor of the Richmond Whig, will be married on Wednesday next to Mr. A. Frank Ogg, The Rev. J. Wiley Bledsoe will officiate at the wedding, which will take place in the home of the bride's mother, near Trevillian's Va.

Invitations have been received in Richmond from Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox H. Escoffier, for the marriage of their daughter, Miss May Caldwell, to Mr. Wallace Bruce Laughton.

The ceremony will be performed Wednesday evening, November 18th, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Southern Presbyterian Church, Shelbyville, Ky. The groom-elect who formerly lived in Richmond, is a son of Captain J. E. Laughton.

At the wedding of Miss Mabel Vaughan to Mr. James T. Carneal, of this city, which took place at the Plaza, in Baltimore, on Wednesday last, the Rev. W. B. Beauchamp, of the Broad Street Methodist Church, officiated.

The bride wore white crepe de chine, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Frank Sinton, as dame of honor. The best man was Mr. James T. Pollard, of this city, and among the guests from Richmond were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carneal, Mrs. R. L. Adams, Mrs. James T. Vaughan, Miss Grace and Miss Mattie Carneal.

The engagement is announced in New York of Miss C. Elizabeth Glenn, now of that city, and Mr. Augustus Fisher Hartigan, of Chicago, Ill.

Miss Glenn is a niece of Mr. and Mrs.

Willie J. Gilman, and a granddaughter of Mrs. M. E. Denzler, and is well known in Richmond. She was educated at St. Joseph's Academy, in this city, and about four years ago, in company with her mother and brother, went abroad and made an extended tour of Europe, remaining more than a year. She is an accomplished musician and linguist, and has secured several prizes an honorable mention on her sketches in crayon. It was in Paris that Mr. Hartigan presented a letter of introduction to the little party from the Johns Hopkins University, of Baltimore, of which Mrs. Glenn and her two children were members, and the announcement of the engagement is the result of the acquaintance begun there.

Mr. Hartigan is associated with his brothers in railroad construction in the West. He is a civil engineer of high standing, and though only twenty-seven years of age, he has already attained to an enviable position in the business world.

It has not yet been decided whether the marriage will occur in Richmond at St. Mark's Church, of which Miss Glenn's family are members, or in New York, at St. Matthew's Church, where she is now a teacher in the Sunday-school.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Caroline Shelburne to Dr. Thomas Denovay Armistead, of Roanoke, Va., will take place from the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Shelburne, of No. 615 East Franklin Street, December 8th, at 6:30 P. M.

The ceremony will be witnessed only by the immediate families of bride and groom. No invitations have been issued, but announcement cards will follow the wedding.

Miss Jeanne Lovenstein, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lovenstein, will be married at half-past 4 Wednesday afternoon, November 18th, to Mr. Nathan Coleman, of Savannah, Ga.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. E. N. Callisch, in the home of the bride, No. 59 North Fifth Street, only the intimate friends and relatives being present. An informal reception from 5 to 7 will be afterwards held.

The bride will be attended by Miss May Brauer as maid of honor, and Mr. Sidney Lovenstein, her brother, will be best man to the groom. The wedding is an interesting event in both Richmond and Savannah society, the contracting parties being well known and most popular in their respective cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Tazewell Dowell, of Lindsay, Albemarle county, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Mollie Elizabeth, to Mr. Lonnie Rufus Tyler, of this city.

The ceremony will take place Tuesday, November 17th, in Washington, D. C. After a Western tour Mr. and Mrs. Tyler will be at home to their friends at No. 814 North Twenty-seventh Street.

Quite a pretty wedding will take place at Monumental Church next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Katherine G. Bowie, the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Bowie, of No. 51 North Ninth Street, and Mr. Roy Hullen Williams.

The maid of honor will be Mrs. T. W. McCabe, a sister of the bride-elect. Mr. William A. Woodfin will be best man, and the ushers: Mr. John Gibson, Jr., Mr. W. D. Leake, Mr. Le Roy Green, Mr. Richmond Moore, Mr. William Smith and Mr. Fred Childress.

Both Miss Bowie and Mr. Williams enjoy a wide acquaintance in this, their native city.

Thanksgiving German.

The young ladies who have in charge the Thanksgiving german, to be given in honor of the visiting University teams on the night of Thanksgiving, are congratulating themselves on their brilliant prospective success.

As the german this year is directed by two of the most attractive of the season's debutantes—Miss Lillian Blinford and Miss Louise Herbert—unusual interest is being taken in all the details. The ball room of the Masonic Temple where the german will be danced, will be decorated with palms and the colors of the Universities of Virginia and North Carolina. The german leader will be Mr. Adolphus Blair, and the chapwoman, Miss

MID-NOVEMBER SALE SCATTERS BARGAINS

Price concessions count for nothing unless the apparel is stylish and up to date. At this store style is the first essential—quality next. Each style or innovation has its season, and when passe, must make room for later creations. New ideas always command an attentive ear with us. Now come and see how far your dollars will reach here during this sale of dependable merchandise at

BONE-FIDE REDUCTION PRICES.

Ostrich and Fur Boas.

New Ostrich Boas, large and fluffy, in white, gray, black; length and prices are:

1-4 yards for.....	$10.00
1-3-8 yards for.....	$13.50
1-2 yards for.....	$15.00
1-2 yards for.....	$18.00

Also an assortment of beautiful Furs, in the newest shapes and styles, in genuine Squirrel, Isabella and Sable Fox, Mink, Marten, Seal and Ermine, either double skin, squirrel or satin lined; prices $13.50 to.....

Muffs to match all skins in all grades, either round or mushroom shapes; prices $9.00 to.....

Children's Furs, in White or Gray Squirrel, Brown or Gray Hare, Fox, Lamb and Tibet; prices 98c. to.....

Women's Coats.

Loose Coat of all-wool black or castor kersey, collarless style with stitched band, inlaid in velvet around neck, new full sleeve lined throughout, an exceptional value

for..... $5.00

Dressy Coat of extra fine kersey, in castor, tan and black, fancy double cape, stitched velvet collar, strap down center, back lined in heavy satin..... $7.98

New Coat of good quality, medium weight kersey, collarless effect, deep capes over shoulders, fitted back, double breasted front trimmed in metal buttons, satin lined, colors castor, tan and black, an exceptional value..... $10.00

New Suit Arrivals.

Suit of good quality blue or black cheviot, 27-inch tight-fitting coat, silk lined throughout, tailored new flare skirt, all sizes from 32 to 44; special value.....

Nobby Blouse Suit of gray and white or blue and white mixtures, collarless coat, cape over shoulder, extra full sleeve, satin lined, new habit-back skirt, also Suit of good quality blue or black Broadcloth, straight, tight-fitting coat, wilted seams, satin lined, nine-gored flare skirt, a strictly tailor made garment..... $20.00

Very Dressy Blouse Suit of fine Broadcloth, double capes over shoulder, piped in silk and trimmed in buttons, fancy vest, taffeta lined; new skirt kilted from knee down, $25.00

for.....

Reductions in Pattern Hats

It means high-grade Headwear at half original prices. Monday—a clearing sale of beautiful Pattern Hats, in the most approved styles; fine Dress Hats secured especially for the demand of the most exclusive trade—now radically reduced.

Here are three ideas how they are now priced:

$5 for hats that sold up to $8.50.

$7.50 for hats that sold up to $12.

$10 for hats that sold up to $18.50.

Dress Hats $7.50—Hats trimmed in the best materials, and in the very latest effects; Hat that sold from $10 to $12.

Imported Pattern Hats, $10—Beautifully trimmed Hats and costly imported Pattern Hats—brought from Europe as style-indicators. Many of these are the patterns so much admired at the opening and then priced $15 to $20.

Knitted Blouses, Norfolk Jackets.

Children's Sweaters, in red, white or navy, buttoned at neck, extra quality.

At $2.62 Golf Blouse in Red, Navy, White and Black, close fitting around neck, tight belt at waist, new puff sleeves, all sizes, regular $3.75 value for $2.62.

Misses' Blouses, in white or red, fancy knitted, tight collar and cuffs, silk buttons.....

$2.75

Norfolk Golf Jackets, in White, Red, and Black and White, single-breasted, collarless effect, close knitted straps and belt, large white pearl buttons.....

$7.50

Girls' Coats.

Long Coat, suitable for school wear, is of castor or blue kersey, with fancy stitched split cape, to fit girls from 8 to 14 years.....

$5.00

Dressy Full-Length Cheviot Coat, with embroidered emblem on sleeve, straps over shoulder, trimmed in brass buttons, sizes eight to fourteen years.....

$7.98

Coat of good quality black velveteen, large collar with stole front, trimmed in soutache braid and lace medallions; a very dressy Coat for.....

$6.75

Other qualities from $3.50 to $20.00.

Some New Skirts.

Skirt of all-wool invisible plaid in gray and tan, seven gore flare, habit or inverted back, strap around hips and down front finished with silk buttons. A fine $6.00 skirt, for.....

$4.62

Dress Skirt of good quality black cheviot, cut after the new 7-gore style; each seam trimmed in design of silk taffeta bands.....

$5.50

Skirt of all-wool herringbone cheviot, in black and blue, 15-gore flare bottom, each seam tucked.....

$7.50

Fine quality Broadcloth Skirt, tucked flare bottom, panel front, trimmed in three wide straps around skirt and button habit back; a very stylish skirt.....

$10.00

Kaufmann & Co.

Fourth and Broad Streets.

and Mrs. Frank Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Truman A. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Hobson.

Among the young ladies who will take part in the evening's gayeties are: Misses Nan Morris, Mary Drake, Mary Dreyer, Edith Grant, Louise Purcell, Nellie Gordon, Carrie Armistead, Nora Leary, Elizabeth Brander, Rebecca Walker, Jennie Talcott, Annie Smith, Bessie Hunter, Elise Parkinson, Mary Ball, Mary James, Jane Fisher, Rebecca Gordon, Agnes McCarthy, Rose Morris, Louise Price, Sara Harris, Mamie Bruce, Bessie Tompkins, Linda Bargamin, Margaret Watkins, Marie Lightfoot, Lily Cary, Josephine Tyler, Eva Dietrich, Bertha Adamson, Susie Harrison, Mary Goolsby, Louise Salden, Helen Stevens, and Mrs. Stuart Cooke.

Young gentlemen from the University of Virginia will include, among others: Messrs. George B. Adams, R. P. Bell, Jr., John P. Boogher, R. W. Bolling, W. C. Brawley, C. S. Brent, T. P. Bryan, W. C. Campbell, E. Calloway, R. L. Cook, P. Cothran, L. K. Cradick, E. M. Daniel, A. Y. P. Garrett, J. K. Graves, W. W. Gaunt, F. C. Harris, W. M. Heald, John Hume, Howard Hume, C. H. Hunter, F. Jordan, John Madison, J. F. Mason, H. N. Mason, E. H. Miller, H. N. Page, Jr., C. E. Patton, J. B. Pollard, M. P. Robinson, W. F. Scott, J. W. Somerville, G. C. Tabb, D. D. Talley, C. C. Tennant, F. F. Watkins, H. L. Walker, W. H. White, Jr., C. P. Stearns, B. C. Nalle, S. T. Caves, J. W. Burke, H. G. Russell, N. H. Russell.

The Richmond Cotillon Club has been organized and is looking forward to a brilliant season. The first of the series of dances will be given December 18th in the Masonic Temple, Mr. Adolphus Blair leading.

The club officers are: Mr. Henry Hotchkiss, president; Mr. George D. Morgan, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Philip R. Carlton, Mr. William B. Turner, Mr. Carl M. Goodloe, Mr. C. Irving Blair, Mr. Henry P. Adair, Chapmen—Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Maudie T. Spiller, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart M. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Banson, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Adams.

An important meeting, at which every club member is expected to be present, will be held to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

Under the auspices of Mrs. Edward N. Callisch, six parlor lectures will be delivered this season at the Jefferson Club, the first being scheduled for next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the Jefferson Club.

The subject of the lecture will be "Robespierre," the lecturer Dr. A. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, whose known eloquence and magnetism as a speaker makes a particularly brilliant forecast for his entire series of talks.

The second lecture, which will be on "Mirabeau," will be given Tuesday, November 24th, the day being changed from Thursday on account of Thanksgiving. The remaining four lectures will follow on successive Tuesday afternoons, the dates being December 1st, 8th, 15th and 22d.

The subject for December 1st will be "Napoleon," that for December 8th will be "The Unification of Italy," and that for December 15th "The Hero of Helles," all the world.

The charming social features which have attended Mrs. Callisch's lecture courses in former seasons will be especially noticeable in this about to be presented, for which many cards have been already taken, and which holds the promise along every line of being specially enjoyable.

A leading event in German social circles was the musical and hop given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Virginia last Monday evening.

The gem of the evening was a solo sung by Mrs. Bertha W. Richardson, who was applauded most heartily.

Miss Eleanor Steinbrecher contributed to the pleasure of all present by reciting. The Auxiliary wishes to extend its thanks to these ladies and to Mr. C. Spigler for his beautiful selections on the sither.

After a charming trip to the great Caverns of Luray, the Retreat excursionists returned to Richmond Thursday evening.

The excursions stopped at the Mansion Inn, of Luray. The proprietor, Mr. Walter Campbell, was most gracious and attentive, making everyone comfortable and happy. His perfectly equipped hotel and excellent cuisine were much appreciated.

As usual a bridal party accompanied the excursionists, this having now become a regular feature of all the Retreat excursions.

The Board of Lady Managers of the Retreat for the Block heartily thank all the friends who so kindly assisted them with this excursion.

Rabbi and Mrs. Edward N. Callisch will be at home this evening from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Samuel Woolner, of Peoria, Ill.

Mr. Woolner was at one time mayor of Peoria, and is now president of the Union of American Hebrew congregations, the most representative Jewish body in America. Mr. Woolner is Mrs. Callisch's uncle.

Mr. E. K. Smoot, of Massanillo, Mexico, gave an elegant dinner at the Jefferson last Monday evening, in honor of his sister, Mrs. Mary Willie Smoot. Mr. Smoot is the son of Mr. W. H. Smoot, of this city, and is engaged in a large harbor contract on the Pacific coast.

The dinner was somewhat in the nature of a family reunion. Mr. Smoot's father and about twelve or fifteen members of the family being present. The host of the occasion, who spent a week at the Jefferson, has returned to Mexico.

Mrs. Emmett A. Shepherd was the hostess at a charming dinner party given at her country residence, "Dumbarton," Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Robert H. Talley. Among those present were Mrs. Robert H. Talley, Mrs. A. M. Cannon, Mrs. E. B. Walters, of New York city, Mrs. Clifton Miller, Miss Mary Waddill and Mrs. J. W. Young.

At the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday, November 17th, at 4 P. M., Miss Kate E. Bristol, of Washington, will talk to women on "How to Have Good Health." Doubtless her talk will be not only interesting, but full of helpful suggestions.

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

MISS C. ELIZABETH GLENN.

American Lady Corsets

TRADE MARK.

Studying the Requirements of Well Developed Figures has resulted in the production of Longfellow Model, style 512. This is a garment of design and proportions such as are essential for figures of large development. Draw the flesh from the abdomen to the hips, where it is held securely in graceful lines by the large tailback, going down to the knees. The curved and this sections do the work. No straps, not a harness but a scientifically constructed corset. Made of fine Coutil, in White, Dab and Black. Size 15 to 30, $2.00. 150 Other Styles—A Shape for Every Figure. At your dealers.